Edmund S. Muskie
Secretary of State
Washington, D. C.

Dear Ed,

I am sure you have been approached many times to enlist your support on behalf of the tragic plight of Raoul Wallenberg, the young Swedish Christian diplomat who, when on a U.S. State Department sponsored mission single-handedly saved 100,000 European Jews from Nazi annihilation. He was last seen in the escort of several Russian officers soon after the Soviets occupied Budapest.

This letter is simply to emphasize that I am extremely concerned over the fate of Wallenberg and I request that you, as Secretary of State, make the resolution of this tragedy one of the top priorities of your office.

I realize that world events don't take a vacation; however, I hope you get a chance to enjoy Maine in general, and Webhannet in particular, this summer.

Kindest personal regards, —

I. Joel Abramson
